YOU CAN TAKE COMFORT

In a room that seems not only to invite you to walk in but stay in. To have any other kind of a room is worse than absurd when we are selling Easy Chairs and Parlor Goods at such Extremely Low Prices as at present either for Cash or on Easy Payments. You get part of your money back every time you look round the room. It is perfectly true that there is no place like home, but it is also perfectly true that some homes might be a good deal more cheerful, cozy and comfortable than they are. Bleak and brown covered were the houses of long ago but there is certainly no excuse for that kind of thing now when we offer our such bargains.

DAILY REPUBLICAN.

W. R. ABBOTT & CO.,
Jewelers.

FRIDAY EVE, JULY 22, 1902

It will now be in order for the Democratic press to attack Joe Patton of Pennsylvania for refusing to remove the troops from Homestead. If there has been no violation of law why are the troops kept there?

How did Judge Altgeld get his $1, 000,000? He got it in his speeches in 1900, declared that no man ever accumulated $1,000,000 honestly.
He will certainly not vote for Altgeld unless he has changed his opinion on the accumulation of wealth.

CONGRESSIONAL BUREAU, known as Joe Baker, the man who defeated Joe Cannon, and who won his soldier record, was one of the six northern Democrats who were so destitute of shame as to vote against a joint resolution giving the city of Washington power to appropriate $20,000 of its own funds to aid in ex-terminating the Grand Army of the public at its national encampment in Washington in September.

The Democratic end of the committee which has investigated the properly preferred charges against Commissioner Hamm and the pension bureau, and then proceeded to try him, have reported to Congress recommending his dismissal.
Congressman Bankhead, who not long since threatened the south would again wade if it could not be exempt from contributing to the payment of pensions to ex Union soldiers, will vote for Hamm's dismissal. His vote will be an honest one, because he is opposed to the entire scheme of paying pensions to Union soldiers. The other Democrats will strike at the pension system indirectly by repealing the commission.

It Was Not Bullets for Bread
The Democratic organ of the country, that started out to make political capital out of the Homestead riot and refuse to change their tactics after the evidence and the declarations of two out of the three Democratic members of the congressional committee that visited Homestead, have shown that those who were the former enemies of the Chicago company have received and were offered the best wages the same class of work men receive anywhere. The same organ refuse to recognize the fact that the employees of the Homestead mills did not strike, but were locked out because they allowed themselves to be deceived by the millionaires representing the arma-mented negotiation of iron and steel workers. They also evade the fact that those men took possession of and attempted to hold property, in violation of the constitution and laws of the state of Pennsylvania and of the United States, which did not belong to them and that it was in an attempt to take possession of this property that the unfortunate riot occurred, and that after the riot they still held the property by force and only reluctantly when compelled to do so by militia of the state by order of the governor.

They refuse to accept the fact that it was not the men who were the cause of the riot, but that the militia were sent to the Homestead and that the militia would have furthered the riot if it were not for the presence of the state troops.

All these facts, however, for nothing with this particular element of the Democratic party, which continue

GOOD TEMPLARS IN CAMP.

Large Attendance and Enthusiasm. Speeches by Grand Lodge Officers—Dr. Cronhystekha, Junior.

Yesterday was a big day for the Good Templary of this state, and despite the sickness of Dr. Cronhystekha, which prevented his attendance, was a great success. To show his regard for the encampment and explain as satisfactorily as possible, he sent his son, Dr. Cronhystekha, Jr., from Toronto, Canada, to explain his absence. The young man who is a splendid representation of the race, just out of school, arrived at 5 o'clock and informed Grand Chief Templar Copp, and Manager Smith that his father had an attack of the heart, which absolutely prevented his attendance.

In the afternoon the exercises opened with music. Rev. Gibson, of Marion, made the opening prayer, and Grand Chief Templar Copp delivered the first address of the afternoon which defined the attitude of the order as being in opposition to license of any kind, high or low, and in favor of Prohibition. He also reported the order in a flourishing condition, 122 new lodges having been organized this year.

Mrs. Minnie Caraway of Christian, G. V. Templar, followed with a good talk, in which she dwelt upon the educational influence of the order. In reply to the charge that it was a sparking school, she said: "Yes, Good Templary kindles the sparks that will grow into a flame of public sentiment that will destroy the liquor traffic."

Rev. Welcome of Morrisville spoke for his lodge, and gave an account of Good Templary in Minnesota.

D. L. Bunn of this city was introduced as the Deputy R. W. Grand Chief Templar for Illinois, and made a ringing speech.

Col. Sobieski occupied the platform for some time along the lines of Good Templary and prohibition.

Mr. Shiner of Hudson, Ill., made quite an eloquent talk.

E. J. McBarrett, the Irish temperance lecturer and field worker, made a speech, saying he had organized 45 new lodges in southern Illinois.

The Jingles gave several fine selections, which were received with the usual favor and encore.

During the day Good Templar badges, regalia and banners were plenty everywhere on the ground.

At 10:30.

After an opening prayer by Elder M. D. Hines, Col. Sobieski gave his popular lecture on "Ten Years in the United States Army," from 1895, when Pierce was President, Gen. Scott commander-in-chief and Jeff Davis secretary of war, to the close of the rebellion. He gave humorous and interesting incidents in service in Utah, New Mexico, and then to Washington.

His account of the battle of Gettysburg was thrilling and eloquent. In closing he attributed the civil war to the conservatism which permitted slavery, and said that it was always best to stand fearlessly for the right on all questions, regardless of consequences.

He paid a grand tribute to the bravery of the soldiers, both north and south.

Among those who have come a long distance to attend the camp-meeting is Miss Vernelle Carter of Ashland, Ohio, who is the guest of Mrs. Hamsher and Mrs. Pitzer.

Among the numerous floral tributes that came from a distance was a pretty bouquet from Miss Honore Hubbard of Berea College, Ky. Mr. Boneham, the Oremus nursery man, has also kept the meeting well supplied with choice flowers.

THE BROCK CASE.

The Trial will be Held at Clinton in August.

The attorneys in the case of the People against Charles Brock, of McLean county, charged with murder, are busy working up their different sides of the case for the circuit court of DeWitt county, which convenes in Clinton the last Monday in August. Brock is the man who shot into an altercation with Alexander Halsey and his son, Luther Halsey, near Heyworth, on the 19th of April, in the course of which both the Halseys were shot, the son fatally so that he died in a short time. The father afterward recovered. The attorneys for the defense are Major Fash Warner, of Clinton, and C. M. Pierce, of Bloomington. It was decided that no preliminary hearing would be had, but the case will at once go to the circuit court. Mr. E. Brock, father of the accused man, wanted a hearing, but the attorneys did not. Brock is now in jail at Clinton awaiting trial. The legal proceeding in the case promises to be long and hotly contested. It is possible that a change of venue may be taken to McLean county.

Will Locate the Home.

On July 28 at Springfield, the Soldiers' Widows Home will be located at some point in the state by the W. R. C. state committee. Tuesday and Wednesday the committee met at Homer to consider the situation. In the party were Mrs. Sue A. Sanders of Delevan, department secretary of the W. R. C.; Mrs. Mary A. Bradley, past department president; Mrs. W. L. Dustin, of Col. Dustin of Quincy; Mrs. Rose East of Cairo, and Mrs. McCullum of Galesburg. Mrs. Nettie McGowan of Chicago, a member of the committee, did not arrive until Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock. The Relief Corps of Tolono and Sidney came over in a body and did much to make the occasion enjoyable. Among the visitors from Urbana was Mrs. S. T. Bussey, wife of Congressman Bussey, who has manifested much interest in securing the home for Homer. She lent substantial aid in the shape of a check for $100 among the first contributions received. Homer offers a site of fifty acres. The great question of location will be settled on the 29th.

HONORS FOR DECATUR.

Capt. John A. Barnes Appointed U. S. Consul to Chemnitz.

The Salary is $2,500, Fees $17,000. -Sketch of the Town and Appointment.

Among the appointments sent to the senate yesterday afternoon by President Harrison, was the name of Capt. John A. Barnes of this city, who was given the American consulate at Chemnitz, (pronounced Koenitz), an important manufacturing city in Saxony, Germany, not far from Berlin and Dresden. The salary is $2,500, and the fees of the office, which in 1890 were $16,519, are supposed to go to the United States government. All expenses are paid by the government, and in the management of the consulate Capt. Barnes will have an efficient corps of clerks. The Chemnitz consular district is held by Henry F. Morris of Illinois, appointed by Cleveland in 1884, and Captain Barnes will succeed him.

Captain Barnes through the press report in the newspapers first heard of his appointment to-day. He was at his home on West William street and was informed by a neighbor of the successful termination of his efforts to secure the office, with all the emoluments pertaining thereto. At present the Captain's plans are in chaos. He will soon receive official notification, and are long he will make arrangements for the journey to Germany. He will have a month's time in which to accept the appointment, and then he will report for duty at Washington to receive instructions and authority to relieve Morris of his duties. The Captain will take his family with him—his wife, and his two children, Charles Barnes and Miss Maud Barnes. The Captain will name his own vice-consul, who will be a German, and Charles will doubtless be one of the clerks.

Captain Barnes was born at Piquette, Ohio, March 5, 1837. He is a stepson of Mrs. Martha M. Barnes, who resides on South Broadway. His brothers are Samuel L. Barnes and William R. Barnes, and his sister Mrs. Hattie Hittin. In the fall of 1857 the Captain entered Union College at Schenectady, N. Y., and graduated in 1861. At Delhi, India, he was an important enterprise of his own, that of a pharmaceutical laboratory, and will spend $15,000 in starting the establishment. The three-story structure to be erected will be 20,000 feet in size. Mr. Irwin will do a wholesale business exclusively.

Will Invest $18,000. S. M. Irwin, who has returned from the retail drug business, will soon engage in an important enterprise of his own, that of a pharmaceutical laboratory, and will spend $15,000 in starting the establishment. The three-story structure to be erected will be 20,000 feet in size. Mr. Irwin will do a wholesale business exclusively.

Propose. It will be well enough for hotel men and restaurant keepers to prepare for a big crowd next Sunday, the last day of the camping-meet, if the weather is pleasant. Thousands of strangers will come to see the excursion trains and they will clamor for something to eat and business will be lively at the parks.

Meeting To-Night. There will be a meeting of the members of the German club this evening at 8 o'clock sharp, at the club rooms. Business of importance is to be transacted. It is especially requested that the Mackinac picnic committee be present.

D. A. Moffit the Purchaser of the McCollum Addition.

To-day J. J. Finn, the master in chancery, sold the McCollum addition of 20 residence lots on South Webster street, extending east to Maffit street, adjoining Riverside Place. It was a partition sale and each lot was sold separately and then all were sold together. The highest bid was made by D. A. Moffit, who offered $3,800, and all the lots went to him. The lots are among the very best in that quarter of the city, all high and dry, and will no doubt find eager purchasers in the near future. The Riverside branch of the electric railway is close by, and Webster street is paved down past the west front of the addition.

28 YEARS AGO. Anniversary of the Death of Gen. McPherson at Atlanta.

Just 28 years ago to-day Major General James B. McPherson, one of the most courageous officers of the late war, met his death in front at Atlanta, in which memorable engagement the surviving comrades of the gallant 41st and 110th Regiments participated.

Major George R. Steele, this city, was in Gen. McPherson's staff, and he in person conveyed the news of McPherson's death to Gen. W. T. Sherman. The Major took Gen. Sherman's message to Gen. John A. Logan ordering him to take McPherson's place, as commander of the Army and Department of the Tennessee. In company with two other staff officers Major Steele took the general's body in an ambulance to Marietta, Ga., where it was dressed and put in a casket. Thence it was taken by the swift detail by rail to Cincinnati and then to Clyde, Ohio, where the remains were interred. Gen. McPherson was shot through the body by a minnie ball. An orderly was with him and as he fell to expire the General's last words were, "Orderly, they hurt me."

As each member arrived he was "tagged," the souvenir, on one side of which was printed his name and the committee which he represented, and on the reverse side the program of the evening. It was a unique affair and was highly entertaining. Mrs. H. A. Wood, Miss Mame Lewis and Mrs. N. W. Woodford served light refreshments to all present.

OUR ANNUAL "CLEARING SALE!"

Now begins on all goods for summer wear. We have Ladies' Oxfords in all styles, and everything is marked down 20 per cent. We have so many kinds that it would take the whole side of a newspaper to name them all and give the prices. We have the goods and

We Want the Cash Out of them.

The season has been backward and unfavorable to the sale of Ladies' Low Shoes, consequently we must put prices on them to make them go. We commence to get in our fall goods next month and we must have room for them. We have consequently marked all Summer Goods away down low to prices which will make them go. Come and get bargains. You won't think you ever before secured a bargain in your life when you see the bargains we offer.

Here's What the Plasterers Think of ROCK PLASTER.

WE THE UNDERSIGNED, contracting plasterers, after much experience and observation, take pleasure in testifying to the practical character of ROCK PLASTER, and while it will remove a not inconsiderable amount of business, namely, that of patching, we advocate its use, as it enables us to work and guarantee the results, and enables us to carry on our trade at all seasons of the year, and modernizes that part of building enterprise which has long gone, placing the business of the plasterer on the same footing as that occupied by the other trades through the advent of machinery and improved methods.
